New woods, new promises,
new miles to go...

Happy New Year!

With the sunshine and mild weather we've been having, it doesn't feel like winter but nevertheless its time for our annual winter closure. Our market is still open this week, Monday through Friday, with all of our Christmas stock at 50% off. Some other items are also on sale, such as the apples we have left in the cooler. Don't forget to stock up on our delicious and very popular apple juice this week!

We will be closed Saturday and will not re-open until Monday, March 12th. I'm sure you'll be thinking about seed starting by then so I've included a coupon that you can clip and save until we re-open to use on a heating pad that, in my experience, greatly enhances seed germination.

Our own apple juice: 5L/$12 ea,
2/$21.50, or stock up: 10/$100.00

Still available this week:

Apples: Empire, Granny Smith, Gala
McIntosh, Jubilee Fuji, Belle de Boskoop,
Jonagold, Spartan, Ida Red, Ambrosia
Pink Lady, Red Delicious

Some varieties priced as low as 29¢/lb!

In February I'll send out an email with the list of Workshops we'll have on offer this spring. Until then, enjoy the break from gardening.

We wish you all the best in the New Year,
Harriet
